Acorn class have been working hard this half term whilst having lots of fun!

Our topic this half term is 'People who help us.'

So far we have learnt about firefighters and police officers. Abi came in and spoke to us about her old job. She used to look for evidence at the scene of a crime! We got to dress us in her old suit and learnt all about collecting finger prints. All of the acorns got to do their own finger prints and looked to see if that had loops, arches or whorls. We also learnt that no-one in the entire world has the same finger prints as us! WOW! Abi also taught us how to dust for fingerprints and how to lift these. This was lots of fun!

Last Friday was Children in Need. We celebrated this by having a non-uniform day and in the afternoon we got together as a whole school and participated in a quiz. Our very clever Acorns got to show off their knowledge about Paw Patrol and Go Jetters characters! This was lots of fun, and very noisy! We also gained points for showing our values. All of the children enjoyed the bear hunt at the end of the day too.

As always, Mrs George is very proud of our work in phonics and maths. We have been working on different sounds and our writing. In maths we have been working on adding, shape recognition and pattern making! Busy busy Acorns!

Parents: Next Friday we are holding a non-uniform day and we please ask if you could bring in a bottle or chocolate for the Christmas Fayre. Thanks.
