Oak Class have had a busy week working on a science experiment.

They have been finding out different types of soil.

Here is a collage of pictures from this experiment.

Thank you for sharing with us!

On Wednesday it was National Thank a Teacher Day.

A massive shout out to all the teachers and support staff for the outstanding dedication, effort & support you have been doing, especially through this difficult time. We thank you!

We would love to see and share more pictures of what everyone has been up to or working on recently. Please feel free to email us anything so we can share with others on the newsletter.

Thank you.

Parents:

Thank you for all you are doing at home to support your children!

Hope you all have a good half term holiday in the sunshine!
