This week we are featuring the whole school production— The Three Little Pigs by Roald Dahl. We are so proud of the whole school and could see how the children enjoyed performing for family and friends.

The main characters were performed by Oak class and they were accompanied by Acorn and Willow class in the chorus numbers.

The traditional tale was told with a Roald Dahl twist which the children enjoyed telling.

The three little pigs built their houses out of straw, sticks and bricks. However the wolf still terrorised the neighbourhood with his furious appetite! Little Miss Ridinghood came to the rescue, but maybe she wasn't as kind as we had hoped, especially after sporting her pig skin travel bag!

We thanked ARj construction for their help once again for rejuvenating our stage and making this performance possible.

Thank you for all your support this past year!
