1. Statement of intent

BEST Mission Statement
- to grow the BEST in everyone -
We believe in the importance of high expectations, hard work and the development of a community of academies where each of us strive to ‘be the best that we can be’ .

Bedfordshire Schools Trust (BEST) believes that in order to facilitate high quality teaching and learning for all children, excellent attendance to school is essential. Pupils¹ cannot achieve their full potential if they do not regularly attend school. Excellent attendance is deemed as 98% or higher over the course of the academic year.

BEST understands that barriers to attendance are complex, and that some pupils find it harder than others to attend school; therefore, we will continue to prioritise cultivating a safe and supportive environment at school, as well as strong and trusting relationships with pupils and parents/carers.

We take a whole-school approach to securing excellent attendance and recognise the impact that our efforts in other areas – such as the curriculum, behaviour standards, SEND support, pastoral support, and the effective use of resources such as pupil premium – can have on improving pupil attendance.

We are committed to:

- Promoting and modelling high attendance
- Reducing all types of absence
- Ensuring equality and fairness for all
- Intervening early and working collaboratively with other agencies/schools to ensure the health and safety of our pupils
- Building strong relationships with families to overcome barriers to attendance
- Ensuring schools work closely with parents to ensure children attend school punctually, every day in accordance with section 7 of the Education Act 1996
- Regularly monitoring and analysing attendance and absence data to identify pupils or cohorts that require more support
- Ensuring this attendance policy is clear and easily understood by staff, pupils and parents/carers

Gravenhurst Academy core values

Respect, inclusion, honesty, resilience, tolerance and achievement

2. Why is regular attendance at school so important?

Excellent attendance to school is of paramount importance. BEST schools expect children to be at school for a minimum of 98% of their school year. This allows children to flourish as well as keeping themselves safe and healthy. It enables economic well-being later in life and can enrich their lives with the fullness that the world has to offer. As a result, children are able to achieve their full potential at school.

¹ For the purposes of this policy, pupil refers to all age ranges educated within Bedfordshire Schools Trust (BEST)

Attendance Policy

Poor attendance habits follow through from primary to secondary school and then on into employment. It is widely known that the link between a pupil's attendance and attainment is irrefutable – pupils who miss large amounts of school do not achieve as well as those who attend regularly. Any absence affects the pattern of a pupil's learning and regular absence will seriously affect their learning. The DfE guidance 2022 Working Together to Improve School Attendance states:

“The pupils with the highest attainment at the end of KS2 and KS4 have higher rates of attendance over the key stage compared to those with the lowest attainment.”

Positive mental health is as important as physical well-being as young people enter adulthood. Schooling enables children to enjoy, achieve and to broaden their minds with regards to future opportunities. Any absence disrupts learning routines as staff have to support the child to catch up, and so may affect the learning of others in the same class as well as the individual child. Pupils who do not attend regularly may become vulnerable and be placed at considerable risk. It can lead to long term disadvantages economically and mentally and it undermines academic achievement.

Shown below are examples of the school days that can be missed in a year through absence:

- 99% attendance = 1 school day missed in an academic year
- 97% attendance = 5 school days missed in an academic year
- 95% attendance = 10 school days missed in an academic year
- 92% attendance = 15 school days missed in an academic year
- 90% attendance = 19 school days missed in an academic year

Appendix C shows Gravenhurst Academy attendance triangle, which provides a visual breakdown of the attendance groups and what particular attendance percentages could mean for overall pupil achievement.

A pupil with attendance of 90% and below is defined as being a persistent absentee.

A pupil with attendance of 50% and below is defined as being a severely persistent absentee.

3. Key roles and responsibilities

The senior teacher responsible for the strategic oversight of attendance within in the school is Debbie Randall.

The school's onsite attendance officer is: Alison Day.

Class teachers are responsible for:

- Modelling good attendance behaviour
- Talking to their pupils where a concern is observed
- Using their professional judgement and knowledge of individual pupils to inform decisions as to whether any welfare concerns should be escalated
- Completing the session/lesson registers.

Parents/carers are responsible for:

- Ensuring that their child attends school every day on time thereby promoting the importance of excellent attendance and punctuality
- Contacting the school to report a child's absence before 8.30am in the unlikely event that their child is absent. A call must be made on each subsequent day of absence, advising when the child is expected to return. Please phone the school on 01462 711257 (Nb. We do not accept “unwell” as a reason for absence, a specific reason will be required.)
- Medical appointments being made outside of the school day
- Ensuring any medication required to support a child's attendance is left at school with reception in a named box. The school requires: medication frequency/dosage/name and reason for medication

Attendance Policy

- Ensuring that any requested meeting about their child's attendance is a priority and attended
- Providing accurate and up-to-date contact details – it is the responsibility of parents to notify the school as soon as any changes occur
- Encouraging children to take responsibility for their readiness for school: for example: using wake-up alarms, eating breakfast and preparing their school bags in advance in order to arrive punctually at school

Nb. The definition of parent/carer also includes step parents who reside at the same address as the child – see definition of 'parent' below and CBC guidance document 'Who is parent?' in Appendix D for further information.

Section 576 of the Education Act 1996 defines 'parent' as:

- All natural (biological) parents, whether they are married or not;
- Any person who, although not a natural parent, has parental responsibility for a child or young person;
- Any person who, although not a natural parent, has care of a child or young person.

Pupils are responsible for:

- Getting prepared for school the night before
- Setting their alarm clocks to wake up in good time
- Attending every lesson and any agreed activities when at school, punctually
- Talking to their tutor/class teacher or a different adult that they trust if they are worried about their attendance

Nb. More can be found about roles and responsibilities in Appendix B of this policy.

4. Definitions of absence

Absences may be authorised or unauthorised.

Examples of authorised absence

- Infectious disease such as chicken pox/measles/hand foot and mouth etc
- Religious or cultural observances for which the school has granted leave (one day)
- Occasional medical appointments which cannot take place out of school hours
- Medical operations/procedures/chronic conditions supported by medical evidence
- An exceptional circumstance as determined by the Principal where leave has been requested in advance and approval given.

Examples of unauthorised absence

- Term time holidays
- Parents/carers keeping children off without explanation/valid reason
- Truancy
- Arrival at school after the register has closed 9.10am. (This excludes pre-agreed medical appointments)
- A parent/carer collecting a child during the day which has not been pre-agreed.

Please note:

- These are not exhaustive lists of authorised/unauthorised absences. These are guidelines as to typical types of absences.
- In the highly unusual circumstance where a request for leave is required, parents must complete a request for leave form two weeks in advance of the absence and send it back for the attention of the Principal. Leave is only authorised in an exceptional circumstance.
- Registers close at 9.10am. If a child is late after this time without good reason such as medical appointment supported with an appointment card, it is coded as U (unauthorised absence).
- In the case where a child is absent and an explanation has not been received by 9.15am the school will contact you. If there is no response to this message, the absence is coded as O (unauthorised absence).
- Holidays taken in term time are coded as G (unauthorised absence).

Attendance Policy

- 10 half day sessions of unauthorised absence within a 12-week period may lead to a Fixed Penalty Notice (FPN). This may be any combination of G, U or O codes to make up the 10 sessions (see section 7 for more information on FPNs).
- It is clear within the law that parents/carers risk prosecution if their child does not attend school regularly. It is therefore important that parents/carers and Gravenhurst Academy work closely together to identify and overcome any issues which may be affecting a pupil's attendance. Where parents decide to have their child registered at school, they have an additional legal duty to ensure their child attends that school regularly. This means their child must attend every day that the school is open, except in a small number of allowable circumstances such as being too ill to attend or being given permission for an absence in advance from the school.
- Persistent absence is reviewed regularly by the Local Authority Attendance Officer and further referrals may be made.

5. Absences for mental health and physical health

Mental health and physical health are treated equally and follow the same procedures within the school. Where a child's attendance is of concern in either regard, parents/carers may be asked for medical evidence to support. Where a child is under the care of a consultant or undergoing assessment/investigation, relevant documentation should be shared with the school so that the school is able to effectively support the child's attendance. In the absence of appropriate medical documentation, the school will implement its follow-up procedures outlined in section 7 below.

6. Punctuality

Pupils are expected to arrive at school on time, every day, correctly dressed in their school uniform, with the correct equipment (including their PE kit on the relevant days). Pupils who sign in to school after close of registers will have an unauthorised absence mark. Punctuality is regularly monitored and the school will contact parents/carers where persistent issues arise.

Good punctuality is a lesson for life and it is important that schools help young people to develop responsible behavior in this regard.

7. Attendance interventions

The school will regularly monitor pupil's attendance and will look for patterns where non-attendance occurs.

Informal school support intervention (this list is not exhaustive)

- Phone call home to discuss attendance
- Phone wake up call
- Principal to meet parents to discuss how we can support with attendance

Formal school support interventions (this list is not exhaustive and the severity of the absences will determine how these steps are followed)

- Letter 1 (the importance of good attendance - reminder letter)
- Letter 2 (cause for concern)
- Medical evidence only letter (medical evidence will be required to authorise future absences - this may be a prescription, confirmation of medical appointment, consultant letters etc)
- Persistent absentee letter with in-school meeting conducted by a member of SLT.
- Attendance strategy meeting leading to an individual attendance plan with the senior teacher or Principal
- Fixed Penalty Notice warning
- BRIF (Building Resilience in Families) / EHA (Early Help Assessment) and any other voluntary arrangements which may be deemed appropriate
- Referral to the Local Authority Attendance Officer

Attendance Policy

- Fixed Penalty Notice (see below for details)

Local Authority interventions (this list is not exhaustive)

- Home visits undertaken by the Local Authority
- Voluntary parenting contracts
- Education Supervision Order
- Statutory Social Care Involvement s.17 s.47
- Attendance Prosecution

Fixed Penalty Notice (FPN) - If issued with a FPN, parents/carers must pay £60 within 21 days or £120 within 28 days. The payment must be made directly to the Local Authority. When a FPN is served, it is issued on a per child / per parent basis. This means that if a mother and father have two children and take both children out of school, they may be issued with a total of four FPNs – one to each parent for each child. If payment has not been made after 28 days, the Local Authority can decide whether to prosecute the parent/carer or withdraw the notice.

8. How the school promotes attendance

The school celebrates and promotes high standards of attendance in the following ways:

- assemblies
- certificates
- rewards

The school will be covering the importance of attendance/punctuality and the links to good mental health and wellbeing, success and achievement in tutor time/assemblies and citizenship lessons.

9. Other attendance matters

a) Children Missing in Education (CME)

In the case where a child does not attend school and the whereabouts of that child are unknown, Gravenhurst Academy will make every effort to contact the family concerned. In the case of non-contact, Gravenhurst Academy will refer the matter to the Local Authority Access and Inclusion Service. If there is a safeguarding/criminal concern, Gravenhurst Academy will refer to social services/police as appropriate.

“Where a pupil has not returned to school for ten days after an authorised absence or is absent from school without authorisation for twenty consecutive school days, the pupil can be removed from the admission register when the school and the local authority have failed, after jointly making reasonable enquiries, to establish the whereabouts of the child. This only applies if the school does not have reasonable grounds to believe that the pupil is unable to attend because of sickness or unavoidable cause.”

The school will keep evidence of home visits and contact with the family. The safety of the child is paramount.

b) Children who are suspended from school (fixed term or permanently)

Whenever pupils are suspended from school parents/carers are immediately notified by telephone. This is followed up by a letter that explains the reason for the suspension and gives the date that the child is expected to return to school. For the first five days of any suspension the school will provide work for the pupil which should be completed and returned to school for marking. During these first five days, the parents of the suspended children must ensure that their child is not present in a public place without reasonable justification as this may result in a Fixed Penalty Notice being served. Where a pupil receives a fixed term suspension of 6 days or longer the school has a duty to arrange suitable full-time educational provision.

Attendance Policy

c) Children taught at an Alternative Provision

The attendance of these children is tracked and monitored in conjunction with our alternative provision partners and concerns addressed as appropriate. The school will monitor the attendance of the child at the provider as well as ensuring safeguarding practices are adhered to.

d) Truancy

Gravenhurst Academy will contact the parents where onsite/off site truancy is identified. Failure to attend lessons is a safeguarding concern but is also a significant breach of the school's behaviour policy.

e) Home Visits

It may be necessary on occasion to visit a child at home in the case of non-attendance to school. Visits may be planned with parents/carers in advance but also may be unannounced in the case of welfare concerns.

f) Information Sharing

Schools/other agencies are expected to share information and work collaboratively with other schools/agencies where there are attendance concerns and related children are in different educational settings.

Appendix D – Who is a parent?

Guidance document 'Who is a parent?' published by Central Bedfordshire Council

As a result of confusion amongst some parents who claim they have no parental responsibility and therefore can't be issued a penalty notice or prosecuted, this section has been put together to clarify the legal definition of "parent". It should also give some helpful pointers which may assist future work with families.

Schools are required by law to have a wide range of dealings with pupils' parents. The question "Who are a pupil's parents?" is, however, not always as straightforward as it sounds. In addition, schools can often find themselves caught up in disputes between a number of adults who each claim to have parental responsibility for a particular child.

This document is intended as helpful guidance for schools but should not be treated as a complete and authoritative statement of the law.

Definitions

Who is a "Parent"?

Section 576 of the Education Act 1996 defines "parent" as:

- All natural (biological) parents, whether they are married or not;
- Any person who, although not a natural parent, has parental responsibility for a child or young person;
- Any person who, although not a natural parent, has care of a child or young person.

Who has "Parental Responsibility"?

(The Children Act 1989)

Having parental responsibility means assuming all the rights, duties, powers, responsibilities and authority that a parent of a child has by law.

People other than a child's natural parents can acquire parental responsibility through:

- being granted a residence order
- being appointed a guardian
- being named in an emergency protection order (although parental responsibility in such a case is limited to taking reasonable steps to safeguard or promote the child's welfare)
- adopting a child

If the parents of a child were not married to each other when the child was born, the mother automatically has parental responsibility but the father only does (from 1 December 2003) by jointly registering the birth of the child with the mother. He can, however subsequently acquire parental responsibility by various legal means.

What does having "care" of a child mean?

Having care of a child or young person means that a person who the child lives with and who looks after the child, irrespective of what their relationship is with the child, is considered to be a parent in education law. This could be shown by:

- Interaction with the school – attending meetings, making phone calls, being on the school's record as being involved (in whatever capacity) etc

Attendance Policy

- Residence with the child where, for all intents and purposes, the person is part of the family
- A man or woman married to a parent of a child

For example:

- Are they listed on school records?
- Does the school have contact details for them?
- Do they meet with teachers/attend parents' evenings?
- Have they been involved with the measures designed to improve attendance?
- Do they contact the school on behalf of the child when s/he is ill?
- Do they live with the child?
- How long has the school known of them being connected with the child?
- Does the adult bring/collect the child to/from school?
- Is the adult married to the parent of the child?

It would not be appropriate to assume that someone having a casual relationship with the parent of a child necessarily has 'care of the child' unless we have cause to believe the person has some involvement with the child's life – living with the child could be a determining factor as could the other examples outlined above.

Educational Provision

The Education Act 1996 s.7 states that:

"The parent of every child of compulsory school age shall cause him to receive efficient full-time education suitable – to his age, ability and aptitude, and to any special educational needs he may have, either by regular attendance at school or otherwise."

Conclusion

It is therefore those adults who are having significant input to a child's life who can be classified as "parent", having "parental responsibility" or who have "care of a child" who the Access and Inclusion Service can take action against if they are failing in their duties to ensure the child is receiving their educational entitlement and the school can evidence that they have actively engaged them in efforts to improve the poor attendance.
